CSCW
Asia Winter School
2019

December 13 FRI ▶ 14 SAT

Kyoto, JAPAN

This winter school is a two-day event which aims to provide students and researchers in related fields a chance to promote a better understanding of CSCW (Computer-Supported Cooperative Work and Social Computing) research, scholarly networking, and community formation.

▶ Application: August 5, 2019
▶ Notification: August 20
▶ Early Registration: August 31

[Program]

Tutorials —— "History and recent trends of the CSCW research" by Jonathan Grudin
"Qualitative methods in CSCW research" by Luigina Ciolfi

Mentoring —— Poster presentation & Group mentoring

Panels —— "New frontier of CSCW"
"Career development panel"

https://cf-collaborator.github.io/cscw-aws2019/

[Financial Support]

Travel and accommodation support will be available for up to 20 students. Students and researchers all over the world are welcome to apply, but priority will be given to those in the Asia-Pacific region.

[Organizers]

Naomi Yamashita, NTT Research Labs; Hao-Chuan Wang, UC Davis; Juho Kim, KAIST; Hideaki Kuzuoka, University of Tokyo; Gary Hsieh, University of Washington.

SIGCHI