【2019 STUST ESP Presentation Contest】

May 8th, 2019

Contest Guidelines

1 Purpose

This contest encourages undergraduates to practice their English speaking and presentation skills and perform a presentation on topics which are innovative, creative, and most importantly, inter-disciplinary. The contest aims to promote inter-disciplinary teamwork and increase students' interests in English learning.

2 Organizer

STUST Language Center

3 Participation

The participants will work in inter-disciplinary teams which consists of 2-5 members from at least two different departments or colleges. The teams can be:

- Recommended by each college: Each college in STUST should recommend 3 to 5 teams
- Created by volunteers: Any undergraduate who wants to join the contest can form a team of their own without a college recommendation.

4 Registration

Fill in the Registration Form (Appendix I) and email it to Micky Hsiao (mickyhsiao@stust.edu.tw), the coordinator of the contest, with the subject "Registration for 2019 STUST ESP Presentation Contest" by noon of January 4th, 2019.

5 Rules

5.1 Topic: Innovative, creative and inter-disciplinary subjects of modern trends in technology, science or some other current issues.

5.2 Length: Between 4 and 6 minutes
Each presentation should be between 4 and 6 minutes. The bell will ring once when the presentation reaches the 4th minute mark, twice at the 5th minute mark, and three times at the 6th minute mark. After the 6th minute mark, presenters must stop immediately and leave the stage. 5 points will be deducted from the total score if the presentation is shorter than 4 minutes or longer than 6 minutes.

5.3 Slides limitation of PPT: None, as long as you can finish your presentation within 6 minutes.

5.4 Please submit the PowerPoints slides (PPT) via email (mickyhsiao@stust.edu.tw) by May 1st, 2019 with subject title, "PPT for 2019 ESP Presentation Contest". Please note the name of your team in the email. The filename extension should be "pptx". PPT updates are not allowed after the files are submitted.

5.5 The language center will assign an instructor for each team to provide necessary aid during preparation.

5.6 Teams can test the microphone and PPT in the contest hall on the afternoon of May 3rd, 2019 (around 3 pm to 4 pm). If there's any change in the time and the date, team leaders will get a notice. Please check your STUST email regularly.

5.7 Team members should check in with their Student ID cards 30 minutes before the contest and draw lots to decide the presentation order at the contest hall. Teams that haven't shown up to the contest hall 10 minutes prior to the begin of the contest will be regarded as withdrawn.

5.8 Teams must be in the contest hall during the whole contest. Each member should be on stage during their turn, giving a speech, or controlling the computer.
